Great stuff. I am going to reach out internally to find the best participants to get information shared between us at a high level without getting lost in the minutiae. Will let you know early tomorrow morning.
Thanks for the prompt response
Russell

I agree Russell. Meghan Bruce is our lead planner and Karl Boudreau is the NCO i/c. Both are cc'd.
I know that our Intel unit is distributing a product within the next hour.
Let me know what works best to get everyone together tomorrow.

Good afternoon gents,
Touching base to see where your teams are at with your planning response for the upcoming Freedom Convoy event. Not sure who your planning lead is but it may be worthwhile for a short conversation sometime tomorrow.
On a related note, has the RCMP been partaking in the provincial intelligence meetings with respect to this event? I know that some of the western cities, such as Calgary were on the calls, but not sure what you have been getting from an intelligence perspective. I would be very interested in getting our respective teams talking to make sure some things are not slipping through the cracks.
